

High School Part-time Spanish Teacher

Start Date: August 25, 2022, for 2022-23 school year

Abiqua Academy, the only independent (non-sectarian) PreK – 12 college preparatory school between Eugene and Portland, Oregon, seeks a part-time High School Spanish teacher, commencing academic year 2022-23. Refer to separate description for part-time Lower (elementary) School Spanish position, which could be combined to create a full-time position.

Abiqua teachers engage and inspire young people. When possible, we strive to emphasize experiential, hands-on learning opportunities. HEART values: Honor, Empathy, Accountability, Respect, and Teamwork, are reinforced within and beyond the classroom. Positive relationships characterize the school community. The High School Spanish position will require approximately 15 hours per week on campus, which includes about 9 direct instructional hours – 3 hours per course. The specific schedule has yet to be determined so the successful candidate may have input into preferred days/times. High School levels 2, 3 and 4 are anticipated, with class size ranging from 1 to 4 students per level. It is possible for some lessons to occur remotely, but in-person instruction is also required.

Qualifications:

Bachelor or Master of Education degree, with emphasis in Education or Spanish

Two or more years teaching experience preferred

Oregon teacher license desired

Ability to pass background check

Demonstrated ability to interact positively and professionally with colleagues, students and parents

Commitment to HEART values and ability to engage and inspire students

Organizational and communication skills: maintain current records, clear assignments, follow-through and support.

In the unlikely event that virtual education is required, the successful candidate should feel comfortable with both face-to-face and virtual education strategies and venues

Compensation: $5,000 per course for the full academic year = $15,000 for three levels

To apply: Send resume, cover letter, and list of three references to HR@abiquaacademy.org

Applicants will be considered as paperwork is received, preferably before June 13, 2022.
